

16TH ANNUAL ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATORS ROUNDTABLE April 24, 2013

REGISTRATION FORM - PLEASE PRINT CLEARLY

Complete this form, enclose $20 check payable to OCSCD. Deadline is April 15th, 2013

Name _____ Grade Level(s) _____

School/Organization _____

Address _____

City _____ Zip _____

Phone (Home) _____ Phone (School) _____

Email _____

Years Attending Roundtable _____

Agenda Overview

- Doors open at 3:00 for Open House with FREE Resources, Refreshments & Light Dinner
- 1 Hour Sessions- 4:30-5:30 PM and 5:40-6:40 PM
- 2 Hour Sessions- 4:30-6:30 PM
- 6:45-7:30 PM: Keynote Presentation: Pola Galie of the Natural Resources Education Foundation
- 7:30-7:45 PM: Wrap-up, Door Prizes, Evaluations and Certificates

Sessions: You may choose either one session running two hours, or two sessions running one hour each.

2 Hour Sessions- 4:30-6:30

- A. EcoTour Trail of the Great Bay Blvd. Peninsula
- B. Extinct New Jersey: A Progressive Perspective of our Prehistoric Past
- C. Backyard Composting/Vermicomposting
- D. Dig In to Soil –Assessing soil as an indicator of Ecosystem Health
- E. Discover Jakes Branch Plant Discovery Trail
- F. Volunteer Water Monitoring Training - Collecting Real Data to Protect our Rivers and Streams

1 Hour Sessions

Session 1 - 4:30 - 5:30

- G. Lessons from a Storm: Post Sandy Activities in the Classroom
- H. Understanding Sea Level Rise and How It Will Affect New Jersey's Shorelines
- I. Pinelands overview: a synopsis of New Jersey's Pinelands
- J. Be Dr. Dolittle
- K. Easy Classroom Amphibian Habitats

Session 1: First Choice _____ Alternate _____

Session 2: 5:40 - 6:40

- G2. Lessons from a Storm: Post Sandy Activities in the Classroom
- H2. Understanding Sea Level Rise and How It Will Affect New Jersey's Shorelines
- L. Liquid Gold: Cedar Creek at Double Trouble Village
- M. Shells on the Shore of Island Beach State Park
- N. Sample Curriculum Offered by NJ Project WET

Session 2: First Choice _____ Alternate _____

We will try to fulfill your first request, however, please pick an alternate program, as they are filled on a first come, first serve basis. Register EARLY. Payment must accompany registration form. No refunds, but alternate may be sent.

Deadline is April 15th. Registration fee is still only $20

Make checks payable to: Ocean County Soil Conservation District (OCSCD)

Mail to: OCSCD/Roundtable

714 Lacey Road Forked River, NJ 08731

Questions? Call 609-971-7002 or email events@soildistrict.org